Statement as to Why He Gave Up His European Trip.

WARNING TO DEMOCRATS,

pangers in the Demand for Free coinage of Silver-The ex-Secretary Would Not Accept the Nomination for President.

Hon. William C. Whitney, of New York, has made public a statement in which the defines the political situation, makes s position clear as regards his decision remain in this country, instead of going Europe, and concludes by saying that o is not a presidential possibility; that he "would not run if nominated, and and not serve if elected."

"And it is also felt, aside from the absence of any Democratic principle to sus-tain-it, that you cannot have such a disturbance of value as would come from changing from a gold to a silver basis without such a shock to confidence, the hoarding of gold and contraction of your hoarding of gold and contraction of your available circulating medium as would bring, in the opinion of our people, the worst panic and distress we have ever seen in this country. The creditor classes are prepared for it. The obligations, mortgages, railroad and otherwise, are quite generally payable in gold. Debts would still have to be paid in gold, but wages in silver, the sufferers, as usual, being the poorer classes.

"There has never been a time when the prospects of international action favorable to the joint standard were at all as over.

"From the discussion of the last twenty years it has come to pass that among the persons in Europe who are trained, recognized scientists upon monetary and economic questions, scarcely one is not at the present moment advocating the desirability of the joint standard as the real solution of the monetary difficulties of the world. This includes every professor enumged in teaching or lecturing

WILLIAM C. WHITNEY.

It has come to be believed in there, its generally and conscientiously. A quite generally and conscientlously. A large majority of the delegates to the coming Democratic convention have been elected by the people for the purpose of incorporating that doctrine into the plat-form of the Democratic party.

"Our people, on the other hand, entirely disagree with these views, and believe, almost universally, that it will bring general ruin to the business end prosperity of the country. It is deemed a new dectrine when proposed to be incorporated into the platform of the national Democracy. It is true that in no previous platform of the party can it specifically be found. Consequently, no party obligations heretofore assumed oblige them to subscribe to it. Under these circumstances, if the results of the Democratic convention should be to establish as the issue of this campaign the free coinage of silver at a ratio of 18 to 1, independent of other nations, in the intensity of feeling likely to arise it is to be seriously apprehended that a disciption of the Democratic party might occur. Certainly, no substantial following could be secured for the dectrine almong easiern Democratic. They might not you the flexibility that the Republican taket for other reasons (believing that the Republican marty stants). epublican ticket for other reasons (be-eving that the Republican party stands or other issues that are detrimental to be country), but the Democrats in the ast would not, in my opinion, vote for

"This movement for free coinage purnorts to have for its object the establishment and maintenance of gold and silver as the money of the country upon equaterms with each other, and at parity of purchasing power. If, by the preposed measure, that object could be secured, there would be no substantial disagreement in the party. Every national Democratic platform that has beretofore spoken. cratic platform that has breatofore spoken upon the subject has declared for both gold and silver money. It is our traditional policy. But the maintenance of the double standard at the present time

Whatever the causes and whoever is Whatever the causes and wheever is to blame, the fact is that silver has decined, and free colinage now at 16 to 1 is the same as our offering for all the silver in the world about twice what it is selling for in the market. International exchanges have to be paid in gold. And it would seem plain that if we, under these conditions open on mints to the free. conditions, open our mints to the free colleage of silver and gold at a ratio of comparative value which is largely at variance with the commercial value of the two metals, we must take the entire silver surplus ourselves, maintain its parity with gold, or else we shall go to a silver books.

FRANCE'S EXPERIMENT. 'France in 1873 closed her mints against silver and abandoned this experiment. deeming herself unequal to the task alone, and at that time it was much less diffi-calt, for silver was then at par with gold at the ratio in use, and even England's mints in India were open to the free coinmints in India were open to the Irre coin-age of silver. If the experiment of main-taining the parity of the two metals at a coinage standard was difficult, then it would seem to be positively hopeless now age of sliver. If the experiment of maintaining the parity of the two metals at a coinage standard was difficult, then it would seem to be positively hopeless now without international agreement. Germany, France, Beigium, Italy, and Austria believe in a double standard, and desire to establish it, but no one, two, or three of them deem themselves able to maintain the double standard, even with the co-operation of the United States. If the result of the measures proposed would be to carry us to a silver basis, it is not feit here that such a proposal would be in line with the principles of the Demos-

Fundamental differences of principle exist inside the party, marked almost by sectional lines.

'The great question, to my mind, is whether the party meets in convention now, as in 1850, with issues and differences that are for the moment irreconcilable. For the past fifteen years leaders of public opinion in the South and West have been advocating as the great remedy for existing lik the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, with or without the co-operation of other nations. It would be expected that with nations. It would be expected that with nations. It would be expected that with nations. It would eat expected that with nations. withdrawn.
"At the present moment, Germany,
France, Italy, Austria, Holland, Beigium, and the United States wish to co-opeand the United States wish to co-operate for the establishment and maintenance of the joint standard by international agreement, and (a most important circumstance), Great Britoin has recently—within three months, in fact—made a most important concession. She has said: 'We will do for you as much as you can do for yourself. We will make this great contribution to a bimetalite system: 'We will go back upon deliberately arranged methods of providing a currency for India. We will reopen the Indian mints. We will engage that they shall be kept open, and we shall, therefore, provide for a free coinage of sliver within the limits of the British empire, for a population greater in number pire, for a population greater in number than the populations of Germany, France, and America put together."

AN IMPOSSIBLE TASK.

"Into this long and now just about to be successful struggle for the establish-ment of the joint standard, it is proposed that we should intervene by assuming to establish it alone. Against this proposed action on our part these carriest believers in and workers for the cause strenuously protest. They say to us: 'You cannot succeed, and your fallure will discredit succeed, and your failure will discredit the cause."

"The recent article of Dr. Ahrendt in the North American Review shows very clearly the view taken by our friends abroad upon this subject. He has done much, and probably more, than any living man to advocate and bring to its dominating position in Germany this cause. One of the original organizers of the Bimetallic League in Germany, he is entitled to be called one of the leaders of public opinion in Europe upon this subject. It was upon his motion in the Prussian Chamber of Deputies that the position of Germany was mediated within the last year. He expresses the opinion that free coinage undertaken by the United States alone would simply end, in silver monometallism and discredit and put back the cause of the double standard the world over.

put back the cause of the double standard the world over.

"It is a question not what we wish, but what we are able to do. A strong man may undertake a task too great for his strength and break down.

"It cannot be denied that the feeling among our people is that this free coinage by the United States alone will not give us the gold and silver money at a parity with each other (which is the assumption upon which it is taken), but will bring us to silver monometallism, and a change in our standard of value, and that change, it is believed, means immediate ruin to it is believed, means immediate ruin to our industries and no permanent good to any one. This feeling is general and in-nant here in our party as it was found in the Republican party when it bore down and overpowered the McKinley machine. "Personally, it is my opinion, if the Democratic party goes on that platform at this time, they will meet the most disastrous defeat that any party has ever had in this country. I understand it is bonestly believed in, and the people think it will bring relief from their present troubles; but between now and election day it will be pretty thoroughly sifted, and the people of this country will not face the disturbance of values, the loss of confidence, the general distress, and of confidence, the general distress, and ruin which would come to their business interests in such a change in their stand-ard of value, as would arise from such action. And it will, in my opinion, overaction. And it will, in my opinion, over-whelm the persons who undertake it.

"It ought not to be necessary for me to say anything of a personal nature. I find myself, however, spoken of here and there as a possible candidate; not very seriously or prominently, but sufficiently to attract attention, if I enould fall to notice it. It sometimes effects one's influence in cases like the present. I have no personal mo-tive in entering this fight. I have saif the the present. I have no personal mo-tive in entering this fight. I have said that I would not be a candidate. I will add, copying the emphatic language once used by the late General Sherman II think I remember it correctly. I will used by the late General Sherman (I think I remember it correctly). I will not run if nominated, nor serve if elected." I sm not foolish enough to suppose that any eastern man could be nominated by this convention, much less that I could. I sympathize thoroughly with the feeling in the South that has caused this uprising and will find its expression at Chicago, but as to the principle which the uprising has brought forth and the issues being framed. I entirely disagree. that any eastern man council to by this convention, much less that I could. "The report that I said that the eastern Democrats were discouraged by the over-whelming majority of silver men that will Democrats were discourased by the overwhelming majority of sliver men that will be delegates in the Democratic National Convention is unitue. We are by no means discouraged, and propose to put forth our most persuasive powers to induce the national convention to adopt a gold plank. We are willing to admit that the sliver men will have almost a two-thirds majority in the convention.

We rely, however, on our arguments, and hope-for victory. We are inclined to believe that we may induce the sliver men to recognize the importance of having a gold plank in the platform. Despite the reports that we are discouraged, we are more strongly than ever convinced that we have a fighting chance.
The gold men in the East are just getting keyed up on the subject, and every day more interest is expressed in the situation by men of importance. The gold sentiment is growing stronger.
"I cannot say what will be done at Albany to-day, but, in all probability, the gold plank to be adopted at Saratoga will be formulated."

The Albany conference, of which Mr.
Whitney spoke, will be held at the apartments of Senator Hill.

CHARLOTTE MASONS,

quet. SMITHVILLE, June 22.-(Special.)-Friday was a red-letter day with the Masonic fraternity. St. John's Lodge, No. 14, A. F. and A. M., were out in full numbers, and had for their honored guests Right-Worshipful J. P. Pitzgerald, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Virginiay Grand-Lecturer Harry G. Owen, Grand-Secretary Dr. George C. Carrington, District-Deputy Grand-Master F. J. Gregory, and a large number of visiting brethren from lodges at Clover, Pamplin's, Farmville, Keysville, and other places. Five fellow-crafts were raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason. The work of conferring the degree was performed in a most impressive manner by the Grand Secretary and Grand Lecturer, assisted by Worshipful-Masters Martin Harvey, of Clover Lodge, H. D. Hanner, of Keysville Lodge, and others. The following officers were elected and installed by the Grand Master for the numbers, and had for their honored others. The following officers were elected and installed by the Grand Master for the ensuing year: A. J. Terry, worshipful master; F. C. Thorton, senior warden; George E. Barksdale, junior warden; F. J. Berry, treasurer; John H. Faris, senior deacon; A. W. Donald, junior deacon, and J. T. Lowry, tiler. At 9 o'clock the craft was called to refreshments, and marched in procession to the Eagle Hotel, where a most sumptuous banquet had been surgead, and it was a banquet in every spread, and it was a banquet in every sense of that word. The table fairly groaned under the good things with which it was londed; the dining hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens, and daisies and Masonic emblems most tastefully decorated could be seen in every part of the room.

After short speeches from the grand officers and several of the visiting brethren the lodge marched back to the lodge-room, where they continued work until the wee sma' hours.

H. J. Martin, of 702 T street, N. W., Washington, D. C., in a recent interview had with him by Mr. H. D. Brodie, of the Washington Chronicle, said: "Having suffered for many years with dyspepsia, indigeation, and billousness, I tried every known remedy, consulted many physicians with the hope of getting cured, or even relief, but nothing seemed to relieve me. After meals I would feel as if a ball of lead was lodged in my stomach; tired, and listless, as though life was scarcely worth living. Finally, I was attracted to the advertisement of Ripans Tabules, and concluded to try them. After taking the first two or three, I was surprised to find the relief they gave, and by the time I emptied the first box I felt like a new man. A rumor that Consul-General Lee, in his report to the Chief Executive, will recommend that the Cuban insurgents be granted recognition, was also used against the market, and with some effect. Very little support was forthcoming, and prices yielded readily.

came out on the way down, the decline in refined of 3-16c, per pound and the break in raws abroad having dislodged stock held on weak margins. In the International issues, Louisville and Nashville, St. Paul, and the low-priced Southwesterns also lacked support, and declined under pressure of both long and short stock.

Near the close, when Sugar rallied, the general list improved somewhat, but in the final transactions the list was weak again. The net changes show losses of 1463-15 per cent. Sugar leading. The sales were 23.04 shares, including 61.250 Sugar, 46.890 St. Paul, 20,160 Louisville and Nashville, and 15.600 Burlington and Quincy.

Bonds were weak. The sales were 887, 660.

Near the close, when Sugar rallied, the general list improved somewhat, but in the final transactions the list was weak again. The net changes show losses of 14-63-15 and the part of the same as heretofore, with more thanked and the construction of the same and the construction of the same and the control of the present crop, which is now making rapid progress, and only making rapid colory and Bright Culting: Otherings of all grades very scarce, with demand far ahead of supply.

Darks: The offerings at auction of new crop were much the same as heretofore, being mainly one sucker, fit only for rehanding, and a large quantity of common lugs, suitable only for Spain. Any leaf at all suitable for France or Italy selfs at outside figures.

The 1896 crop: In the upper country Burley district the crop is doing as well as any one could desire. In the dark-tobacco districts heavy rains have again fallen in particular places, tending to damage some of what had not been injured previously. The outlook for dark tobacco on high lands being almost alone to be depended on this year.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Wheat displayed very little recuperative power to-day holders indiring the matter of selling rather a displaying selling rather a displaying gestion. The demand was neither forceful nor urgent, and had it no been for the buying of shorts prices would doubtless have suffered more than they did. September wheat opened at from 51-44577-Se., sold between 581-4458-7-se., and closed at 51-2c-11-Se under Saturday. Cash wheat was weal and ic. per bushel lower.

Corn-There was nothing in the situation of the grain market to impart either strength or activity. The leadership of wheat was followed, which fact, of course argued weakness, and the trade was of slow, indifferent sort. September corropened at 291-Se., sold between 292-Se 291-4 and 287-Se/Sec, and closed at 29c-1-4c under Saturday. Cash corn was easy and 1-4c. per bushel lower.

Outs-Nothing of an extraordinary character in the trade in this grain was noted to-day. But slight interest was takes speculatively, and alterations in quotations came through the firmness or weakness conveyed by wheat. September out closed 1-462-Se. lower than Saturday. Cash oats were easy and 1-4c. lower.

Provisions-Hogs in abundance arriver at they ards this morning, and the conditions at that place were reported weak verging on demoralization. This could have had but one effect on product, and naturally prices weakened and declined Business was not exceedingly active however, and the seesion was at best an ordinary one.
